EDWARD EVERETT OAKES

Arts and Crafts Amethyst, Natural Pearl and Gold Cross Pendant, American, ca. 1920

An exquisite Arts and Crafts double-sided natural pearl, amethyst and gold cross pendant. Vibrant hues of amethysts and glowing natural pearls against the glow of rich gold create a spectacular combination. The fine details and workmanship in gold, so typical of Arts and Crafts jewelry, are so very enchanting! With the back of the pendant just as beautiful as the front, this reversible jewel is truly exceptional

An Antique Yellow Gold Back, Platinum Top Butterfly Brooch, Set with Pavé Diamonds, Calibré Cut Rubies, Pearl and Buff Top Emeralds, French, c. 1890

French craftsmanship and extraordinary gemstones

A stunning Butterfly brooch fashioned with a Platinum top and Yellow Gold back. Diamonds, calibré cut rubies, pearl and buff-top emeralds adorn this brooch, creating a breathtaking canvas of colours, shapes and finishes. The deep hue calibré cut rubies and vivid buff top emeralds are exceptional! Creamy white and supremely lustrous, a pearl sits at the centre of the Butterfly, seemingly glowing from within. A remarkable combination of French craftsmanship, design, materials, lapidary work and azuring (shown from behind)
