THE Rufino Report

Whether you're hosting a few friends (safely!) or relaxing solo, every cocktail hour deserves a little glamour, says our man-about-town Robert Rufino. These Art Deco-inspired picks transform any home bar into a high-style speakeasy.

1. "Turn the lights down and it practically glitters." Table, bunnywilliamshome.com.
2. "So sophisticated. Use it to hold table linens or silverware." Chest, hickorywhite.com.
3. "A slick, sexy take on a classic martini glass." Glass, riedel.com.
4. "It reminds me of Champagne bubbles!" Mirror, marieburgosdesignthystore.com.
5. "Every room needs a sense of humor." Stool by Marc Bankowsky, maisongerard.com.
6. "What better place to recline as you enjoy an after-dinner drink?" Recamier by Darryl Carter, bakerfurniture.com.
7. "Place it behind the bar during a party to hide extra glasses and bottles." Screen by Old World Weavers, theinside.com.
8. "Very Sonia Delaunay meets Radio City." Rug, malenebarnett.com.
9. "Instantly makes any barware collection look good." Bar cart by Moe's Home Collection, perigold.com.
10. "The color of an excellent Bordeaux." Tray by Mally Skok, dowelfurniturecompany.com.
11. "Everyone should have a crystal decanter." Decanter, us.williamyeowardcrystal.com.
12. "Overhead lighting can be harsh; try a few table lamps on dimmers instead." Lamp, homebybe.com.
13. "You can separate the tiers and use them as extra drinks tables—perfect for entertaining." Étagère, oomphhome.com.
